In old times, before railroads scattered people with such great facility, the best and famous people of Virginia and North carolina assembled at Buffalo, upon the toundary, and kept up a fine round of enat, marked by the gallantry and grace sailed to the times. Could Buffalo recall the departed spirits which once gave life and grandeut to her balls and shades, the were that it could display would find no papuelin these times.

Nevertheless, there is a society yet to assemble at Buffalo that will be marked for grace and for virtue. The invalid will find there a place of rest, with a bright sky and sn exhibitating sir. The gentleman who has it in hand well knows what is good for all seekers of pleasure and of health-i. c., he knows what they think good for themselves; and as he desires to make them content they may be sure of being accommodated.

Buffalo Springs are quite accessible from the learnille railroad, and since it is in this ballwick, as it were, families may be there and feel near at home, which is a gratificanon to those who have the cares of parents and guardians to interest their minds. We may predict a very bright season for Buffalo under its present auspices.

[Reported for the Dispatch.] East Hanover Presbytery. THIRD DAY.

PETERSEURG, April 24, 1874. The Presbytery convened at 9:30 A. M and was opened with prayer by the Moderator, Rev. Mr. Scott.

Hev. M. W. Staples, not present before appeared and gave reasons for his absence Mat were sustained as satisfactory. Rev. Dr. Armstrong, chairman of the ommittee on Bills and Overtures, reported an answer to the overture respecting the solemnization of marriage:

Does a Presbyterian minister who, in the

"solemnization of marriage," intentionally omits the word "obedient" from the covenant as proposed to the woman, using no equivalent word in its place, thereby subt himself to censure from Presbytery ? The answer to this overture states that the language of the "Directory of Worthe word "obedient" or some equivalent $24, $30, $36, and $40 per dozen. expression in the marriage covenant. This directory has been adopted as a part of the "standards of the Church." Its requirement . in accordance with several passages of seripture quoted. And further, the definilion of the marriage relation, as to its nature and relations, contained in the form of covemant referred to, is the only one contained in our standards.

In view of these facts an affirmative auawer is given to the question of the over-

The report was unanimously adopted. The following commissioners to the General Assembly were elected: Ministers: Rev. William A. Campbell and Rev. T. D. Witherspoon, D. D., with Rev. H. T. Darnall and Rev. William N. Scott as alternates. Elders: Governor J. L. Marye and Major Robert Stiles, with Hon. Charles F. Collier and Judge Beverly R. Wellford as alternates. The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported an answer to the overture of Rev. N. M. Woods, relating to the proper conatruction of the language of the Directory for Worship on the reading of the Scriptures. The purport of the answer is that the design of the Directory is to secure general uniformity in the public services of the Manctuary, but is not to be understood to be rigidly binding in every particular as a prescribed liturgy. The Word of God is to be highly honored in our worship, but some discretion is allowed as to the omission of reading the Scriptures. The report was

The respective committees reported that The respective committees reported that they had examined the candidates on the Latin, Greek, and Hebrew languages, Mental and Moral Science, and Physical Science.

They were then even included that a treatly reduced prices. I have about 25 barrels MALTED RYE WHISEY, four years old, which is unquestionably the finest whiskey in the market, which I will sell much below cost. They were then examined in presence of the Presbytery on Theology, the Sacraments, Church History, and Church Gov. ernment. These examinations were all sustained as satisfactory.

The Presbytery heard read the popular sermon of Mr. Pinkerton, which was sustained as satisfactory. The unfinished business of yesterday, the consideration of the memorial to the General Assembly relating to organizing the cofored people into separate churches, was taken up, and led to an interesting discussion, showing, however, a general agreement in sentiment.

The Committee of Education reported with reference to the candidates under the care of the Presbytery.

As a part of this report there was presented a report from the Faculty of the Union Theological Seminary, making a gratifying statement as to the conduct and proficiency of the two candidates in attendance there during the past session, namely,-Mr. Alfred E. Grover and Mr. William F. Bishop-the latter from this city.

Rev. J. W. Mosely was dismissed, at his own request, to Tombigbee Presbytery.

A letter was received from Rev. E. H. Rutherford, formerly pastor of the Tabb-Street church, and still a member of this Presbytery, stating that the Presbytery of St. Louis, within whose bounds he now resides, had determined to connect itself with the Southern Church, and asking a transfer to that Presbytery. The request of Mr. Rutherford was granted.

The committee appointed to confer with West Hanover church with reference to the union of a church in that Presbytery with the Powhatan church in the joint support of a minister reported that that Presbytery had made the recommendation desired, that Willis's church and Powhatan should unite in the support of a minister.

Permission was granted to Alfred E. Grover, a candidate under care of this Presbytery, to labor in Powhatan under the direction of the church session during the vacation at the Seminary.

Permission was given to Rev. James B Converse to labor without the bounds of the Presbytery until the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved. That in the judgment of this Presbytery it is the bounden duty of every church in our bounds to contribute at leas once in every year to each of the six objects of benevolence recommended by the General Assembly. The Presbytery adjourned till 9:30 A. M

Latest News from Washington. The Effect of the Veto of the Currency

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, April 24.—The fever of the veto seems to have very sensibly subsided though as the inflation members of Congress are not disposed to submit quietly to the defeat they have sustained, the condition of affairs is probably the lull for a storm which will break out at the next presentation of a financial measure. It is already stated that was appointed to be held at Amelia Court- the inflation Senators on the Administration house on Thursday, 24th of September, at side of the Senate intend to prepare an address to the people, which will be issued in a few days, and in which they will strongly condemn the attitude of the President on . M. as the time for his ordination; the the national finances. This move will cercan party upon the floors of Congress, and in which the Democrats will not be likely to mingle. TIMOM. Texas. Referred. The Senate passed a bill amendatory of the act to provide internal revenue to support the Government, to pay the interest on the public debt, and for other purposes, approved June 30th, 1864. This bill provides that no legal document or paper re quired by law to be stamped, which was made, signed, or issued in the southern States prior to the 1st of July, 1865, shall be deemed or held as invalid and of no effect by reason of the failure to impose thereon

the required stamp. Mr. Conover, of Florida, introduced a bill for the relief of James Atkins, late collector of internal revenue for the Fourth Georgia district. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Report of the Transportation Com mittee.

FOUR GREAT ROUTES RECOMMENDED-THE VIR GINIA WATER-LINE PART OF THE STATEM. WASHINGTON, April 24 .- The report of the Senate Transportation Committee was made by the chairman, Mr. Windom, to-day. It recommends the improvement of four great routes-first, the Mississippi river ; second a continuous water-line from the Mississipp river via the Fox and Wisconsin rivers and the Hennepin canal and the lakes and one or more of the New York canals, called the northern route; third, the central route. consisting of the improvement of the Ohio Kanawha river to Great Falls, and of nia and Virginia to tide-water in Virginia the improvement of the Tennessee river to leaving the river about Gunter's landing to ide water, the question between canals and freight railways to be determined hereafter. The committee recommend these improvements as a system to be considered together,

The South Carolina Grievances. WASHINGTON, April 24 .- The House subjudiciary committee held a brief consulta tion to-day on the South Carolina matter and postponed final action till next Monday The subject of the tax-payers' memoria excites the grave consideration of the subcommittee, who will report in conformity with the magnitude of the interest deemed to be involved.

The influence wrought by the arguments of the tax-payers is felt in Government circles outside of the Judiciary Committee, and is daily growing more potential, as is evidenced by the gravity with which the subject is being considered. The honest sympathy and, so far as possible, cooperation of all right-thinking people in authority here seems to be going out towards the oppressed victims of misrule, not only in South Carolina, but in other sections of the South.

The Mississippi Overflow-Pitcous Appeal for Relief-Wide-Spread Calam ity. &c.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24 .- Appeals from various parts of overflowed Louisiana say: For pity sake send us relief. Many that have escaped drowning are starving." Details of the calamity are too wide-spread for telegraphing. No mail trains reached Jack-son or Mobile yesterday. The mails came via Vicksburg by boat.

FLEEING FROM PLOODED HOUSES. CAIRO, April 24 .- The steamer Minnello from Memphis hither, picked up seven families from skiffs, rafts, and dug-outs who were fleeing from their flooded homes. The overflow hence to Memphis is chiefly on the west side of the river. RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERERS.

New York, April 24.—The subscriptions at the Cotton Exchange for the sufferers by the Mississippi overflow have reached $4,500 NEW ORLEANS, April 24 .- A letter from a planter in Carroll parish says: "From the overflows there will be twenty-seven plantations in this parish that will make no cotton at all, eleven that may make half a crop, and wenty-nine that are good for a full crop." In St. James parish many persons have eeu forced to leave their homes.

ATTTION SACISALISMET DAYS.

From Portamonth, Va. Special telegram to the Dispatch. PORTSMOUTH, VA., April 24 .- The body of Peter Campbell, the drowned Austrian, was recovered from the river to-day.

A large discharge occurred at the navy yard to-night, and six work-shops were closed until the first of May on account of the exhaustion of the April appropriation. The Beltimore erab-catchers were found guilty and fined by the County Court to-day for violating the State law.

A Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry was organized at Deep Creek to-day with Thomas M. Hodges, master, and F. F. Roche, secretary. In token of respect for the memory of the late Commodore Thomas A. Dorpin, the flags of the Government vessels in port were displayed at half-mast yesterday, and Richmond and Danville Railoperations at the yard will suspend to-morrow when the funeral takes place. The English barkentine Natal, loaded with staves, will sail to-morrow morning for the Mediterranean. Heavy Rains in Alabama.

SELWA, April 24 .- Immense rains have fallen in the past two days, and the streams in every direction are greatly swollen. The Alabama river is within two feet of the highest water-mark of 1872, and the country below is overflowed, inflicting great damage on the crops. The crop prospects are gloomy. MONTGOMERY, April 24.- The rains all over the State for the past ten days have raised the water-courses to overflowing for the third time within six weeks. The Alabama river is all over the low grounds, and still rising. Rain is still falling heavily Eastern and Western judicial districts of Farming operations are greatly retarded and it is feared much low land will have to be abandoned. Railroad communications between this city and Mobile, and between Selma and Meridian, is temporarily suspended.
